BULLETIN TO: PRODUCERS

THE PENNSYLVANIA FAIR PLAN INTRODUCES

- * LOWER DWELLING RATES
- * HIGHER DWELLING MAXIMUM LIMITS
- * INTERNET RENEWAL PAYMENT FEATURE

 LOWER DWELLING RATES

The FAIR Plan Dwelling rates are being reduced 9.73%, effective July 1, 2008. The reduction will vary by rating territory. This is an opportune time to reinvest the premium savings into higher limits. You may want to select the increased amount of insurance offer on the renewal quotes. The premium for the increased coverage should still be less than last year or close, resulting in more coverage for less premium.

 HIGHER DWELLING MAXIMUM LIMITS

In response to producer recommendations and increased property values, the Dwelling maximum limits have been increased, effective April 1, 2008, to a building and contents total of $500,000 from the prior $200,000 building and $50,000 contents.

 INTERNET RENEWAL PAYMENT FEATURE

You can now pay additional premium and renewal bills through the FAIR Plan website at www.pafairplan.com. To make a payment on line, go to the Requests tab, and click on Make a Payment. By completing the required information on each screen, payment can be made electronically by using a personal credit card.

An application can also be completed on line and electronically submitted to the Plan. The electronic application can be found by going to the Requests tab and clicking on the Insurance Application identifier.
